FINHAM PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents

We have had an amazing Christmas Art morning, working to transform the school. It is a really lovely time when children work together from every year group and start to prepare for the last two exciting weeks at school.

We have lots of lovely things planned and I hope the Christmas Countdown will help to steer us to 15th. Next week we will be looking at our last core value of the term, discipline. The team from Engage! will be taking our assembly on Monday and helping us to put this value into practice at Finham. Having the determination and self-discipline to overcome our challenges!

Have a great weekend.
