Dear Parents,

We have had a fabulous week back and it has been great to see the children return for the summer term so enthusiastic to learn.

Mr. Tickle and Evie McDonnell started the week off inspiring us all with their challenges. Evie and her family had successfully raised over £1800 for Birmingham Children's Ward and Mr. Tickle was preparing for his 20 mile assault course.

'If everything comes easy, we will never know achievement!'

We all left the hall ready to take on our challenges for the term.

The Sports teams motivated for their up and coming fixtures.

The choir ready to perform their socks off at Butterworth Hall on Sunday.

Year 6 and Year 2 ready to take their SAT's.

The Ground Force Team ready to transform the Early Years Outside Area.

Year 4 and 5 ready to nail their production.

ALL the children ready to do their best with their learning!

Considering it is only a 19 day Half Term, we really do do a lot at Finham Primary School. You can follow all the school adventures on twitter @finhamprimary or on our Website www.finhamprimary.co.uk or on FROG 🐸

Have a fabulous Bank Holiday Weekend and see you on Tuesday 7th May 😊

Kindest regards

Richard Machin
Headteacher
